

2011-2012 St. Mark's Concert Series

Friday, November 18, 7 p.m.

WoodWorks – Marimbas at Play

Comedy! Drama! Action! Thrills! That's an evening with WoodWorks marimba ensemble. WoodWorks concerts are a fine blend of musical genres carefully mixed with humor and wit that will create an evening to be savored long after it is finished!

Wednesday, December 7, 6:30 p.m.

Advent Lessons and Carols

Advent Lessons and Carols presented by the choirs of St. Mark's. The joyous service with readings, choral music and hymns will follow the annual Tree-Trimming Dinner.

Tuesday, February 14, 7 p.m.

ETA-3 – Chamber Music

Named after a luminous and spectacular star-forming Nebula in our galaxy, ETA3 is a classical trio comprised of flutist Chelsea Knox, pianist Tomoko Nakayama and clarinetist Alexey Gorokholinsky. The trio was recognized by Juilliard as one of three prominent emerging chamber music groups of 2006 leading to their Alice Tully Hall debut.

Friday, March 9, 7 p.m.

The Florida Voices

Join The Florida Voices, Florida's premier vocal ensemble, for a musical journey Across the Americas. Experience the eclectic music that has influenced the people of the Americas—it is sure to be a fantastic journey from top to bottom!

Friday, April 20, 7 p.m.

Mixed Ensemble Chamber Music

Mixed ensembles featuring musicians from the Sarasota Orchestra will present a delightful evening of chamber music. Featured musicians will include harp, clarinet, violin, cello and piano.

Wednesday, May 9, 6:15 p.m.

Le Voci di Venezia

Join us for a special evening with Le Voci di Venezia, the Venice High School chamber choir under the direction of Stephen Johns. This popular ensemble returns to St. Mark's annually for a well-received evening of music and entertainment.

Mailing address: St. Mark's Episcopal Church, 513 Nassau Street South, Venice, Florida, 34285.

St. Mark's Episcopal Church is located on the Island of Venice, Florida, two blocks west of the hospital (Venice Regional Medical Center). The church is located at 508 Riviera Street. For more information about the church and our music program, visit us at www.stmarksvenice.org or call the church office at 941.488.7714.